State Record of the Names of Deceased Soldiers.

SOUTH CAROLINA COLLEGE, }
COLUMBIA, January 16, 1865. }
UNDER APPOINTMENT BY THE LEGISLATURE to prepare this Record, I earnestly appeal to the families or friends of our deceased soldiers to send me at once their name, &c., while there is an opportunity to secure accurate information. Hospital registers and reports of casualties from the army are deficient in the information required; it must be obtained at home.

The Record will date back to the beginning of the war, and includes all who have been killed in battle or died of wounds received in battle, or from disease or accident. If you have been so fortunate as not to lose friend or relative, yet remember that it is noble to rescue from oblivion the name of but one friendless youth who had gone from your neighborhood to die in our cause.

Give—1. Name in full. 2. From what District. 3. Rank. 4. Company. 5. Regiment and arm of service. 6. Died, year, month, day. 7. Cause of death, and remarks (as when he died, age, previously wounded, &c.) 8. Circulars and blanks to be filled will be sent to such as desire them. No fee or expense is incurred by any one for having the record made. The State is endeavoring to fulfill a sacred obligation in securing now and recording for posterity, the names of all our sons who have fallen in this war. In 1862, the Convention unanimously resolved that this should be done, "as a token of respect to their memories, and a legacy of inestimable value to their friends," and the resolution was sent forth, by their order, to be read to our regiments, battalions and companies everywhere. Many a brave soldier may have died in solitude or rushed upon the foe, with the thought in his heart that his name would be honorably preserved at home.

To Manufacturers.

BY AUTHORITY OF THE ACT OF THE GENERAL Assembly December, 1864. "The Soldier's Board of Relief" of Kershaw District, require all Manufacturers of Cotton and Woolen Goods, including Yarns, Iron, Nails and other iron ware; Cotton and Wool Cards, Hats, Caps, Paper, Stoneware and Pottery; Leather, Shoes, Boots, Cuffs, Copperas, Spirituous Liquors, Turbentine Oil, and Turpentine, to deliver, to the Board, or any member thereof, or to the Treasurer, on or before the 1st of February next, a statement in writing, under oath, setting forth such and so many of the above articles as were manufactured by them in the year eight hundred and sixty-four; and to deliver to the said Board or their officer in Camden, on or before the said first day of February next, a Tax in-Kind of three per cent. of all manufactures embraced in their said returns.

In default of such return or payment, the Board will proceed to estimate the amount of such manufactured products, and assess a Tax in Kind thereon of six per cent., and issue execution for three times market value thereof.

By order of the Board:
JNO. M. DESAUSURE,
Chairman.

We will, under no circumstances, return unsolicited and rejected communications.

THE LAWS OF NEWSPAPERS.

1. SUBSCRIBERS WHO DO NOT GIVE EXPRESS notice to the contrary, are considered as wishing to continue their subscription.

2. If subscribers order the discontinuance of their newspapers, the publisher may continue to send them until all arrearages are paid.

3. If subscribers neglect or refuse to take their newspapers from the offices to which they are directed, they are held responsible until they have settled the bills and ordered them discontinued.

4. If subscribers remove to other places without informing the publishers, and the newspapers are sent to the former direction they are held responsible for the same.

5. The Courts have decided that refusing to take newspapers from the office or moving and leaving them uncalled for is "prima facie" evidence of intentional fraud.

6. The Courts have also repeatedly decided that a postmaster who neglects to perform his duty of giving reasonable notice, as required by the Post Office Department, of the neglect of a person to take from the office newspapers addressed to him, renders the Postmasters liable to the publisher for the subscription price.

THE

Southern Field & Fireside!

GRAND LITERARY COMBINATION!

A VAST CONCENTRATION OF TALENT surpassing any combination ever before attained in the history of PERIODICAL LITERATURE of Europe or America!

"The Southern Field and Fireside,"

OF AUGUSTA, GA.

AND

"The Illustrated Mercury,"

OF RALEIGH, N. C.

Combined and continued under the old popular title of

THE

SOUTHERN FIELD & FIRESIDE.

THE ENTIRE EDITORIAL AND CONTRIBUTORIAL CORPS OF BOTH JOURNALS RETAINED.

THE PROPRIETORS OF THE "MERCURY" having purchased the "Southern Field and Fireside" and finding it impossible to make arrangements which would insure a regular supply of paper, upon account of the irregularity and uncertainty of transportation for the "Field and Fireside" at Augusta, Ga., the same having to be supplied from the mills at Raleigh, N. C., have removed the "Field and Fireside" to Raleigh and combined these two sterling Literary Journals. The "Mercury" is therefore merged into the "Southern Field and Fireside," and will be so published until the state of the country will justify a divergence, when both papers will be resumed and continued as heretofore. Subscribers to both journals will receive the paper to the full time of subscription without delay or interruption.

The entire Editorial and Contributorial Corps of both papers are retained upon the emerging journal. It is announced without fear of contradiction that the extensive and Splendid Array of Combined Talent now employed in writing for the "Field and Fireside" surpasses in genuine merit, ability, celebrity, and numerical strength any combination or engagement ever before attained in the history of Periodical Literature of Europe or America!

If a large eight-page Weekly Journal teeming with original Romances, Sketches, Tales, Poetry, History, Essays, Criticisms, Witticisms; including Translations from the French, German and other Languages; Agricultural, Mechanical and Scientific articles, etc.

The Proprietors confidently assert that "Field and Fireside" shall at once far excel all similar publications of the kind ever before printed or attempted in the United States or the South. The arrangements now effected fully justify the assertion.
